Studies in Literature is a series of monographs issued from the Department of English in the University of Dallas. Some volumes, as surveys, will focus upon recent and earlier Southern fiction and poetry; other volumes will emphasize the production of single authors. The English faculty of the University of Dallas will edit and write most of the material to appear in these studies. Many of the volumes will contain papers by various hands. Ordinarily three or four numbers will be added to the series in each full academic year.
